

“Capello” plan provides ranch option at Verona

The Capello dining room and bedroom at Verona, an age-restricted community.

Verona, a fresh concept in retirement living, has established a comfortable, friendly community along the Highline Canal. With three award-winning home designs to choose from, now is your opportunity to find a home ideally suited for your changing lifestyle.

One of the favorite new homes is the 2,596-square-foot Capello. This practical layout provides a perfect ranch design, for easy and comfortable living. Among the many features are a gourmet kitchen and elegant dining room. The master suite and Great Room both have easy access to a large, outdoor covered deck, with views of the Highline Canal. The lower level of The Capello boasts a private guest suite, recreation room and covered patio.

Prices for The Capello start at $617,186. Verona introduces a fresh concept of retirement living. Here, life contours to nature, so adults 55 and over can take advantage of the active lifestyle Coloradans know and love, without the worry of exterior home or yard maintenance. Nestled alongside the High Line Canal, Verona offers a new breed of active adult homes that open to decks and patios so you can savor the great outdoors. This opportunity also offers a program called Smart Move, which will allow you to get out of your old home and into the over-55 community of Verona, hassle-free.
